THE Houses of Lords and Commons having resolved upon humble Addresses to His Majesty, the same, together with Addresses from both Houses to the Lord Lieutenant, were this Day presented to His Excellency, and, with His Excellency's Answers, are as follow:

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the most lively Sentiments of zealous Duty and affectionate Attachment to your Sacred Person and Government.

The heavy Loss which your Majesty's Service has sustained by the Death of the late Lord Lieutenant affects us with unfeigned Sorrow; a Sorrow deeply impressed by the Remembrance of that high Sense of Integrity and Honor, that genuine Glow of Benevolence and Generosity, and that engaging Spirit of Condescension and Affability, which distinguished and adorned that Nobleman's Character, and which, whilst they secured our Affection and Esteem, contributed, in so eminent a Degree, to the Welfare and Prosperity of this Nation.

We gratefully acknowledge your Majesty's Goodness in re-appointing to the Government of this Kingdom the Marquis of Buckingham, in the Experience of whose distinguished Abilities, Integrity and Attention to the Public Good, we place our well grounded Confidence, that your Majesty's Government will be administered with the utmost Advantage to the real Interests of Ireland.

We take the liveliest Share in the Satisfaction your Majesty feels in the present Situation of Foreign Affairs, and particularly in the Restoration of the Constitution and Tranquillity of the United Provinces, favored by the seasonable and vigorous Exertions which were made by your Majesty, and by the brilliant Success of the Prussian Troops under the Conduct of his Serene Highness the Duke of Brunswick. We observe, with the most heartfelt Satisfaction, the Effects of the spirited Measures which your Majesty has adopted on this Occasion, as well in the increased Lustre which has been derived from them to your Majesty's Crown, as in the solid Advantages which they bring to the essential Interests of your Dominions.

We shall not fail to direct our Attention to the Support of our Linen Manufacture, the Protection and Regulation of our Protestant Charter Schools, the Security of the Church of Ireland, and to those Principles which Wisdom and Humanity dictate for the Advancement of Education and useful Knowledge.

We are sensible of the happy Effects of Peace, and the rising Industry, Commerce and Credit of the Country. But while under your Majesty's auspicious and paternal Protection we enjoy those inestimable Blessings, with Pride we boast, that no Part of your Majesty's Dominions feels a warmer Concern for the Honor of your Crown and the general Interests of the Empire: And had your Majesty judged it necessary to call forth into Action the Spirit and Resources of your People, you would have found from us that forward and zealous Support which is due to your Majeſty from a loyal and a grateful Nation.

Edw. Gayer, } Cler. Parliament.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

My Lords,

I Will forthwith tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs to be laid before His Majeſty.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to lay before your Majeſty our unfeigned Expreſſions of Duty, Loyalty and Attachment to your Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

We cannot ſufficiently deplore the heavy Loſs which your Majeſty's Service has ſuſtained by the premature and much-lamented Death of our late Chief Governor. The wiſe and ſteady Courſe of his public Adminiſtration had eſtabliſhed the Tranquillity and exalted the Credit of the Nation, whilſt the amiable Tenor of his private Virtues had conciliated the Love and Eſteem of every Rank and Deſcription of the People. As long as the nobler Qualities of the Mind, the benevolent Affections of the Heart, Affability in Deportment, and Complacency of Manners, ſhall continue to warm the Feelings and engage the Attachments of a generous and grateful Nation, the Memory of the Duke of Rutland will be preſerved and cheriſhed in the Boſoms of Iriſhmen.

Amidſt theſe Effuſions of our heartfelt Regret, we acknowledge your Majeſty's peculiar Attention and Regard to our Situation in the re-appointing to be Chief Governor of this Kingdom a Nobleman who, during his former Reſidence in Ireland, had exerted the moſt unremitting Attention to its Affairs and Intereſts, and merited the ampleſt Teſtimony of Gratitude for the Wiſdom and Integrity of his Government.

We fully participate in the Satisfaction which reſults to your Majeſty from the preſent Situation of Foreign Affairs. We are ſenſible of the beneficial Conſequences which have ariſen from the Reſtoration of the Conſtitution and Tranquillity of the United States, favoured by the brilliant Succeſs of the Pruſſian Troops under the Conduct of his Serene Highneſs the Duke of Brunſwick; and we acknowledge the Wiſdom of the ſeaſonable and vigorous Exertions which were made by your Majeſty during the Courſe of thoſe Events, and which have proved ſo materially conducive to the Luſtre of your Crown, and to the eſſential Intereſts of your Dominions.

Zealous for the Honor of your Majeſty's Government, we ſhall chearfully provide the Supplies that may be neceſſary for the Public Service.

We entertain the higheſt Senſe of Gratitude for the Aſſurances which we have received from the Throne, of your Majeſty's paternal Wiſhes for the Happineſs of this Kingdom.

We ſhall cultivate with Earneſtneſs thoſe Objects which have been recommended to our Care, by directing our Attention to the further Extenſion of our Linen Manufacture, the Protection and Regulation of the Proteſtant Charter Schools, the Security of the Eſtabliſhed Church, and to thoſe Principles which Wiſdom and Humanity point out for the Promotion of Education and uſeful Knowledge.

In reviewing the Progreſs which our Commerce, Manufactures and Credit have made under your Majeſty's auſpicious Protection and Influence, we are ſtimulated to cheriſh, with encreaſed Aſſiduity, the Bleſſings of Peace.

We repeat, however, with Chearfulneſs, our Declaration to ſtand and fall with Great Britain. If the Honor of your Majeſty's Crown, or the Intereſts of your Dominions, had obliged your Majeſty to reſort to the Spirit and Reſources of your People, there is no Part of your Empire from which your Majeſty would have received a warmer and more zealous Support than from your loyal Subjects of Ireland.

E. Cooke, Cler. Parl. Dom. Com.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Will forthwith tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs to be laid before His Majeſty.

To His Excellency George Grenville Nugent Temple, Marquis of Buckingh..., Lord Lieutenant General, and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our ſincere Thanks for your moſt excellent Speech from the Throne.

The untimely and much-lamented Death of your noble Predeceſſor is felt with peculiar Regret by us, who, having been Witneſſes of his public and private Virtues, muſt ever gratefully remember that they were employed in the moſt conſtant, zealous and ſucceſsful Exertions for the Promotion of the National Proſperity and Welfare.

We muſt, however, acknowledge, with cordial Gratitude, His Majeſty's ſignal Attention, both to the Intereſts and the Wiſhes of His People, in having been pleaſed, in conſequence of that diſaſtrous Event, to re-appoint your Excellency to the Government of Ireland. We have already offered to your Excellency the moſt ample, and at the ſame Time the juſteſt Teſtimony of our Gratitude for your wiſe and upright Conduct during your former Adminiſtration, and our Experience of that Conduct juſtifies the firm Confidence that we now poſſeſs, that the ſame Ability, Integrity and anxious Care for the Public Good will again be exerted for the Intereſts and Happineſs of this Kingdom. We, at the ſame Time, beg Leave to aſſure your Excellency, that it ſhall be our Part to forward, to the beſt of our Ability, theſe laudable Purpoſes, and on all Occaſions joyfully to contribute our utmoſt to the Honor and Eaſe of your Excellency's Adminiſtration.

We ſincerely participate in the Satisfaction His Majeſty feels in the preſent Situation of Foreign Affairs, and particularly in the Reſtoration of the Tranquillity and Conſtitution of the United Provinces, favored by the rapid Succeſs of the Pruſſian Arms under the Conduct of his Serene Highneſs the Duke of Brunſwick, and by His Majeſty's well-timed and vigorous Exertions. And it is with peculiar Pleaſure we reflect, that the Meaſures which His Majeſty adopted during the Courſe of theſe Events, whilſt they added to the Luſtre of His Crown, were materially advantageous to the general Intereſts of His Dominions.

Acknowledging your Excellency's Goodneſs, in recommending to our Care Objects of the higheſt National National Advantage, we will direct our Attention to the Support of our Linen Manufacture, to the Protection and Regulation of the Proteſtant Charter Schools, to the Security of the Church of Ireland, and to the Principles which Wiſdom and Humanity ſuggeſt for the Advancement of Education and uſeful Knowledge.

We ſincerely thank your Excellency for the particular Satisfaction which you expreſs in our riſing Proſperity, and for your Deſire to co-operate with us in improving the Advantages we derive from the Bleſſings of Peace: But, though fully ſenſible of the Value of thoſe Bleſſings, we are no leſs intimately concerned in the Honor of His Majeſty's Crown and the general Intereſt of the Empire; and your Excellency may reſt perſuaded, that had His Majeſty judged it neceſſary to call forth our Exertions for the Defence of thoſe Objects, He would have found as cordial, and as zealous a Support from this Kingdom as from any other Part of His Majeſty's Dominions.

W. Watts Gayer,
Edw. Gayer, } Cler. Parliament.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

My Lords,

I Receive with the moſt cordial Satisfaction and Thanks this Teſtimony of your favorable Opinions. The high Honor which you conferred upon me, after I had retired from this Government, muſt always encourage me to endeavor to merit the Continuance of the ſame Partiality and Regard, by the ſtricteſt Attention to the Proſperity and Happineſs of Ireland.

To His Excellency George Grenville Nugent Temple, Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our ſincere Thanks for your moſt excellent Speech from the Throne.

Whilſt your Excellency ſo juſtly deplores the ſevere Loſs which has reſulted to His Majeſty's Service from the Death of the Duke of Rutland, it is impoſſible for us to repreſs the keen Senſations of our heartfelt Sorrow and Regret for that much-lamented and untimely Event. The amiable and exalted Qualities which diſtinguiſhed that Nobleman's Character had indeed deſervedly endeared him to our Hearts, whilſt his firm and proſperous Adminiſtration had entitled him to our Confidence, by ſecuring the Tranquillity, and encreaſing the Credit and Commerce of the Kingdom.

It is, however, a ſignal Conſolation to us, that, after ſo diſaſtrous an Event, we can repoſe our Intereſts with full Security in your Excellency's experienced Virtues and acknowledged Abilities. We have amply recorded our Senſe of the Bleſſings we derived from your former Adminiſtration, an Adminiſtration equally honorable to yourſelf and beneficial to Ireland. And we have the utmoſt Confidence that your Excellency will again purſue that upright Line of Conduct, which cannot fail of engaging our full Support, and enſuring the Approbation of the Kingdom.

We congratulate ourſelves on the Satisfaction which His Majeſty feels from the preſent Situation of Foreign Affairs, and particularly in the Reſtoration of the Tranquillity and Conſtitution of the United Provinces, favoured by the rapid Succeſs of the Pruſſian Arms under the Conduct of his Serene Highneſs the Duke of Brunſwick, and by the vigorous and well-timed Exertions of His Majeſty. On reviewing theſe important Events, we acknowledge and admire the ſuperior Wiſdom of His Majeſty's Counſels, which, without interrupting the Peace of His Dominions, have ſo honorably augmented the Luſtre of His Crown, and promoted the true Intereſts of His Empire.

We ſhall not heſitate to make the neceſſary Proviſions for the Public Service, through a well-founded Confidence, that what we grant with Chearfulneſs will be expended with Integrity.

We return your Excellency our ſincere Acknowledgments for the Intereſt you are pleaſed to expreſs for our Welfare and Proſperity. We feel aſſured, that convinced of our inviolable Loyalty and Attachment to our Sovereign, you will repreſent our Conduct with Fidelity, whilſt you promote with Earneſtneſs His Majeſty's paternal Wiſhes for the Happineſs of Ireland.

We are ſenſible of your Excellency's Wiſdom in recommending to our particular Care that great Staple of our Commerce, the Linen Manufacture, as well as the Protection and Regulation of the Proteſtant Charter Schools, the Security of the National Church, and thoſe Principles of Education and uſeful Knowledge, which have been already ſuggeſted for improving the Morals of the People. Our Attention will be immediately directed to thoſe great Objects which your Excellency has ſelected with ſuch judicious Knowledge of our real Situation and true Intereſts.

We cannot be ſufficiently grateful for the Satisfaction your Excellency has expreſſed at the Increaſe of our Credit and Proſperity, and the Extenſion of our Commerce and Manufactures, whilſt we are convinced of your Anxiety to improve the Advantages which may be derived to them from ſedulouſly cultivating the Bleſſings of Peace.

We muſt, however, requeſt your Excellency to aſſure His Majeſty, that no Part of His Empire would have diſplayed more Alacrity and Zeal for His Service, if He had judged it neceſſary to call forth the Spirit and Reſources of His People, in Defence of the Honor of His Crown, or the general and common Intereſts of the Empire.

His Excellency's Anſwer.

I Return you my beſt Thanks for this Addreſs ſo ſtrongly expreſſive of your Partiality to me; and I truſt that by Perſeverance in the ſame Conduct, which was formerly marked by the honorable Teſtimony of your Approbation and Regards, I ſhall not be unworthy of the Confidence which you have ſo kindly repoſed in my Zeal for the King's Service, and in my Affection for this Kingdom.
